

Your Gift of Compassion

Compassionate Care ALS can continue to help individuals living with ALS, their families, caregivers and communities thanks to the generosity of our supporters. We thank you in advance for considering a gift of compassion. Please notify us of your interest in The Gordon T. Heald Society by completing the enclosed card.

"The most impressive thing about CCALS is the true comfort our family felt in knowing that you were there to guide us through the life altering journey into which we had been thrust. Your support and compassion are amazing."

BENEFITS OF THE GORDON T. HEALD SOCIETY

Members of the Gordon T. Heald Society will receive a certificate from Compassionate Care ALS acknowledging their commitment to sharing the gift of compassion.

As a friend of Compassionate Care ALS, you understand our important work and the positive impact we have on those living with ALS, their families, caregivers and communities. CCALS offers a broad, integrated and holistic range of services from assisting individuals and families in consciously navigating the complexities of the disease to the provision of equipment to educational workshops and so much more.

Beyond this logistical support, we listen to families, offer counsel and guidance, and when invited discuss choices and possibilities.

Our ultimate vision is to be supportive to those with ALS so that they are able to live as fully as possible within the parameters of the illness, and enhance quality of life while exploring end of life questions and concerns with dignity, grace and awareness.

We invite you to share this positive experience with many others by joining The Gordon T. Heald Society. As a member of this Society, you will help us advance our mission of modeling compassion to those living with ALS. Your decision to include the organization in your testamentary plans will allow other families to benefit from our compassionate services.
